

AVALON.

F1 Nantes Hybrid
WA123

Superior hybrid with premium returns.

Key Details

An outstanding hybrid Nantes variety

- High yielding, 100 mt/ha
- Stable variety that is highly adaptable to different planting seasons

Maturity: Early to medium

- Summer 100 - 110 days
- Winter 120 - 150 days

Market segment:

- Pre-pack
- Fresh market

Bolting: Excellent bolting tolerance

Storage: Average to good

Disease Resistance

Intermediate resistance:

- Alternaria
- Oidium and Cavity spot - still in trials, variety too new to claim resistance
- Top yields with preventative spray programme
- Tested under severe disease pressure, with advantage over competitors

Sowing Density

1.0 - 1.3 million seeds per hectare

Planting Schedule

Frost free areas:

J F M A M J J A S O N D

High frost areas:

J F M A M J J A S O N D

■ Southern hemisphere planting times

Foliage Characteristics

- Medium green colour
- Medium to long length
- Strong attachment

Root Characteristics

Dimension: Length: 16 - 20 cm

Shape and colour: Long, cylindrical, slightly tapered

Uniformity and skin smoothness: Excellent, Smooth skins. Good internal and external quality

Disclaimer: Information is based on trial and field observations. Crop performance depends on many factors. We accept no liability or loss that may occur winseed

GLOBAL VEGETABLE SEED

Email info@winseed.co.nz

Postal PO Box 19, Ashburton 7740, New Zealand

Physical 1/62 Cass Street, Ashburton 7700, New Zealand